

PROCEDURE FOR APPEAL OF BUILDING PERMIT DENIALS or
REQUEST FOR VARIANCE FROM THE BUFFALO ZONING ORDINANCE

1. All denials by the Building Inspector of a building permit may be appealed to the Board of Adjustments which consists of the members of the Zoning and Planning Commission.
2. A request for a variance from the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Buffalo is also directed to the Board of Adjustments.
3. The Planning Director shall notify the Board of the matter to be heard before it and a date will be scheduled for a meeting of the applicant with the Board. The applicant shall advertise the Notice of Appeal from the Denial of a Building Permit or the Request for Variance from the Zoning Ordinance in a local paper at least 10 days prior to the date of the meeting with the Board. The applicant shall pay all costs of advertising.
4. At the meeting the applicant shall present drawings or the site for which the building permit has been requested including existing and proposed structures on the site and accurate location of the lot lines. The drawings shall also show adjacent lots and the location of buildings on those lots. Any other drawings, plans, plats, or documents which help explain the applicant's request will also be helpful.
5. For a variance request the applicant shall present a written statement explaining the reason(s) for the request and the exact variance requested. Where the request involves a variance on the locations of an extension to a building or similar matter, the drawing information required in #4 above shall also be submitted.

In either case #4 or #5 above all documents, plats, drawings, or any other information shall be presented to the Buffalo Planning Office at least 7 days prior to the date of the advertised hearing.

6. Any questions regarding these procedures can be submitted to the Buffalo Planning Office in person, by phone or by letter. The office is at the Buffalo City Hall, 46 North Main, Buffalo, WY 82834. Phone 307-684-5566, Fax 307-684-5726.
